Unity and Diversity
in the Midst of Christ's Church

All Christians are to be unified on the essentials of our biblical faith—the doctrines of God, of the Fall, and Salvation. By God's providence, the Church has not always been in complete agreement on every doctrine. Thus we ask, how can we work on our unity?

This conference will aid believers in answering that question by enabling Christians to have a better understanding of what some of those differences are, which is necessary for bringing about a more comprehensive unity.

This conference will bring Christians together to hear from four distinct Bible scholars who will speak with passion from their biblical perspective on areas where the Church is not in total unity. The interaction of these scholars will purposely aim to be an example of disagreeing in a loving, Christ-like manner. The forum format will allow for free dialogue between the speakers. Each of these men loves Christ, are unified in the essentials, and are convinced about what Scripture teaches.
